JUDGE PEARSON AND THE U. S. CHIEF JUSTICESHIP. - The following letter concerning Chief Justice Pearson has been furnished us for publication;

GENTS: -I have just seen it charged that Judge Pearson procured the recent petition, asking for his appointment as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

To my certain knowledge such is not the fact. The petition was drawn up by Walter P. Caldwell, Esq., of Statesville, at the National Hotel in Raleigh, without the knowledge of Judge Pearson, and was signed at once by several gentlemen of the bar in attendance on the Supreme Court, irrespective of par-

A NEWSPAPER MAN IN LUCK .- The following from a correspondence of the Petersburg (Va.) Index from this State tells how Capt. Jno. H. Thorp, one of the proprietors of the Rocky Mount Mail, had a piece of good luck : "Joel Wells, Esq., a well known farmer of Nash, who has turned the globe for sixty-five years, died on Monday. He had many relations near and remote, but he disinherited them all.

They are very poor and destitute.

He lett the bulk of his property to Capt. J. H. Thorp, an eminent young lawyer of Rocky Mount, who is not re-

RAILROAD.—The argument of this case began in the Supreme Court on Wedgive below an outline of the argument pro and con. Some of the best legal talent of the State was arrayed on either side. For the State Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Attorney General Hargrove and Batchelor, Edwards & Batchelor appeared while the defendants were represented by Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, Hon. D. G. Fowle, R. C. Badger, Esq., and G. V. Strong, Esq.

Our readers have already been informed of the fact that the case came up upon an appeal by the defendants from the decision of Judge Albertson sustaining an injunction granted by Judge Watts, restraining them from altering the guage of the North Carolina Railroad from Greensboro to Charlotte. It seems that the discussion was not confined to the question as to the alteration of the guage, but the legality of the present lease under which the Rich-mond & Danville Railroad holds possession of the North Carolina Railroad was argued. The State contended that the lease was invalid; that no North Carolina Railroad had power, under its charter, to make such a lease as this, and in the next place that the Richmond & Dan-ville Railroad could not take the lease. That it was against the public policy of the State for corporations created in other States to acquire, by lease or otherwise, the franchises or right to run, manage or control railroads in this State, without the authority of the General Assembly. That the railroad being a public highway for some purposes, was one of the public institutions of the State, and the State could not permit it to pass from under the control and management of its own officials and into the hands of a foreign corporation without the assent of the State authorities expressly given. No change of the guage of the North Carelina Railroad could legally be made in the arbitrary manner sought by the defendants. It had been fixed by Dr. Babcock is law, and many of the other roads, chartered and built in this State had been Hon. D. 1 compelled to conform their guage to that of the North Carolina Railroad.

The following is a synopsis of the line of argument of the defendants: ganton. They insistedcharter and no further, * * * "

"Sec. 25. That the said company may purchase, have and hold in fee and for a term of years, any land, tenements, or hereditaments which may be necessary for the said road," &c.

"Sec. 18. That the said company shall have the exclusive right of conveyance or transportation of persons, goods, merchandise and produce over the said railroad." &c.

"Sec. 19. That the said company may when they see fit, farm out their right of transportation over said railroad, etc." 2. That section 28 gives power to obtain all such property as the object of the charter required. That section 6 is inserted for some other purpose, and in connection with section 26, means, among other things, the power of leasing, necessary to carry out the power of

To "farm out" means to lease and nothing else. See Webster, Coke, and any of the elementary books. Many authorities were cited to this effect. 3. That as the charter of North Caror change its guage, that power is pro-tected by the decision in the Dartmouth College case, and further that the State had passed no law to forbid the change.

Such right to change the guage was transferred to the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company, or, as the North Carolina Railroad Company could do such work by agent, that as far as this part of the lease is concerned they have authorized it to be so done by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company.

4 That it was to the interest of the people of North Carolina that facility should be given to the country west of Greensboro, for the transmission of its grain, minerals, &c., to the nearest markets, and that they should not be dragged via Raleigh at great expense.

5. That the State of North Carolina bad no power to maintain this action : it should have been in the name of the Attorney General.

The use of her name is not authorized by any law, and therefore, the action should be dismissed. -State vs. Shirley. The Attorney General is not authorized to use the name of the State. - See the Constitution and Public Laws. Complaint does not set forth a cause of action. The grievance complained of is the change of gauge from Charlotte to Greenshoro. Relief is asked to restrain change from Charlotte to Goldsboro. No specific grievance is set forth in the complaint. Railroad charters being private laws, the charters of other corporations not having been passed cannot be read, for the purpose of showing the injury that would be done them by this change. The suit can only be maintained on the idea of an indictable nuisance.

There are no points here stated to support an indictment.

....JULY 19, 1873. SATURDAY .... THE ELECTION, AUGUST 7TH.

The election to be held in this State on the first Thursday in August, on the constitutional amendments, is one of vast importance to our people.

It involves vital changes in the organic law of the State.

For the information of voters, we publish on our fourth page, and shall keep are superior or more attractive to the standing until the day of election, the invalid than; the WHITE SULPHUR clauses in the Constitution proposed to be altered, together with the eight amend- weeks recreation with his family, the ments that passed the Legislature by the requisite constitutional majority, and requisite constitutional majority, and The White and Rice Sulphur Springer which are to be submitted to the people for are but a few steps apart—located in approval or rejection, on Thursday, the basin of a beautiful valley—about which are to be submitted to the people for seventh day of August next,

All the amendments proposed are neces-sary and important, and those who favor them should not fail to vote.

The adoption of the proposed amendments will give us but temporary relief, and that from only a portion of our grievances. We cannot, therefore, see any permanent good that will result from the adoption of the amendments. If they are voted down the prospects for a Convention will be greatly enhanced, if it be not assured at a day not very distant .- Salisbury Watchman.

This is the first evidence of opposi tion to the amendments, we remember to have seen in any of our State cotemporaries, of either party.

We think the Watchman is in error when it says the amendments will give us only temporary relief.

If the eight amendments proposed are adopted or any of them, they become part of the Constitution, and are then as permanently fixed in that instrument as any other clauses.

The relief given is not temporary, but is as permanent as the fundamental law can make it.

It is true only a portion of the burdens resting upon the people will be removed, but the partial remedy is better than no remedy at all.

Eighteen amendments were originally proposed, but ten of them failed to receive the requisite two-thirds majority in the last Legislature. If the whole eighteen had been passed, it would have been much better for the State, as all the material defects of our organic law would have been remedied.

Therefore, while we would rejoice with the Watchman if all the grievances people could be lifted from their shoulders, yet, on the principle of half a loaf the ratification of the eight amendmends to be submitted for popular approval or rejection in August.

ments are ratified, it will endanger the prospects for a Convention.

The people in 1871, by a large majority voted against calling a Convention to alter the Constitution. We do not believe that there is any probability that a Convention will be called in this State soon. Indeed there is no earthly prospect that one will be called for many vears.

The Legislative mode of altering the Constitution, although slow and tedious, seems to be the only one that promises any relief for an indefinite time.

The call for the Convention having failed, we are of necessity compelled to resort to the Legislature for relief.

The eight alterations to be voted on in August will give some relief, and it will be permanent.

Accepting the popular verdict of 1871, it is clear that we will never have a Convention to change the Constitution unless one should be called by the concurrence of two-thirds of all members of each House the General Assembly, present law provides. That exceedingly difficult to obtain. The probability of having a Convention called in this way is too remote to base any hopes upon.

For these reasons, we think it the duty of all who favor the amendments upon their merits, to vote for them at the polls. We take it that our Salisbury cotemporary is as much in favor of the changes proposed as those who will support them. We think that paper is mistaken in not advising its readers to says:

vote for them. We say, it we cannot get all the relief we want at present, let us take what we can get now. We cannot afford to reject what is offered, with the dim hope of getting more from a Convention which may never be called.

HON. JOHN GOODE.

The Piedmont Press pays a very handsome compliment to the address delivered by Hon. John Goode, Jr., before the literary societies of the Washington-Lee University. It says the address is "admirably suited to the times, and while reading it one cannot fail to be impressed with the conceit that the orator must have been to some extent inspired by the spirit of the great Vir. ginian, whose remains rest hard by the rostrum occupied for the occasion "

Mr. Goode is one of the most eloquent orators and popular gentlemen in our sister State, and his name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the Gubernatorial nomination. He was a member of the Confederate Congress from the Bedford District ; but is & Co. now practising law in Norfolk, in part-netship with Col. J.W. Hinton, formerly

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS IN CATAWBA.

We copy below from our esteemed cotemporary, the Piedmont Press, the following account of the WHITE SUL-PHER SPRINGS in Catawba county, together with analysis of the water.

These Springs were formerly called the Sparkling Catawba. They are within about an hour's ride of the Railroad and offer many advantages to the seekers of health and pleasure. The Piedmont Press says:

"Of the many delightful summer resorts in Western North Carolina none SPRINGS, seven miles from this place. For the business man who seeks a few one hundred yards from the main hotel building and dining room. A number of tasty colleges dot the lawn-affording families all the seclusion and privacy of home. The freedom on all sides, the general sans facon gives one a delightful home feeling.

The accommodations are excellent. Fine bathing—plunge and shower bath—ten pin alley—spacious parlors and ball room. The most courteous and polite attention from the servants. The guests are looked after by the accomplished and energetic Capt. Anderson. Dr. Elliott. the proprietor, and under whose supervision the springs are managed, is a physician of eminence, who carefully looks after invalids. The table is profusely and elegantly provided.

The medicinal properties of the water are too well and widely known to require any endorsement from us, as will be seen from the following analy-

THE CODE COMMISSIONERS. In referring to the amendment to the Constitution which proposes to abolish the Code Commission, we stated that the Commission were still drawing their pay, although the code of laws which which have been saddled upon our they were appointed to frame had been completed,

We learn that two of the Commisis better than no loaf, we heartily favor sioners, W. H. Bailey, Esq., and Judge appointed in the place of Victor C. Barringer, Esq., who resigned to accept The Watchman thinks if the amend- an appointment to codify the United States laws. We have not heard whether the remaining Commissioner, Judge Rodman, has resigned or not.

The Legislature attempted to abolish the Code Commission, but it being created by a Constitutional provision the Supreme Court decided that the act of abolition was unconstitutional.

This makes it necessary that the Constitution be altered in this respect, as it is beyond the power of the Legislature to give us any relief.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

If the Newspaper Reporter can be relied on the Christian Advocate has the largest circulation of any paper in this State. If a man can take but one paper and he chooses the Advocate on other than religious grounds, it is a reflection on neither his taste or understanding, for the local and news columns of that paper are as spicy and entertaining as that of any secular journal.

We do not know personally Mr. Gray. the gifted manager of that department of the Advocate, but it he is like his gallant brother who fell in the "lost cause," (a class mate at Chapel Hill of the Associate,) he is a noble fellow .-Piedmont Press.

We endorse the above compliment to majority in the Legislature it will be the news and local Editor of the Christian Advocate, for it is well deserved. We have often been struck with the good taste and ability displayed in his department. His services are a valuable accession to the excellent religious journal with which he is connected.

> SUIT OF THE NORTH CAROLI-NA BONDHOLDERS. A correspondent of the Petersburg

Index, writing from Eastern Carolina "After the first blush is over, and the pulse is down to its natural beat, from the Johnson-Cushing-bond bug bear, the confident opinion is the great lawyers have over-reached themselves. A fraudulent contract ought not to be enforced anywhere. Ear marks of fraud and rascality have always distinguished the bonds, that an attempt will be made to draw from the pockets of honest men to satisfy. And notice of the fraud was duly given. Should judgment be obtained against the State for payment of them, in United States Courts, then will occur the lines of the poet: Judgment fled to brutish beasts, And men have lost their reason,' We believe that the whole scheme an attempt to bull up the special tax bonds by their present owners.

But if the suits be instituted in earn est, the State of North Carolina will never pay any judgment that may be obtained on her fraudulent bonds, until every peaceful remedy is exhausted. The sentiment of the people is wellnigh unanimous that there is no legal or moral obligation resting on the State to pay the bonds of Swepson, Littlefield ion in the lower part of Mobs in the interior of Japan have been burned.

A Reminiscence of the War. In his Jail Journal John Mitchell writes of bellum days, 1862, in Rich-mond. Speaking of the organization of the Confederate army, let us here mention a very surprising part of his history. "The officers being elective, and the time appointed for the new election falling last summer, just when the enemy, in overwhelming force, was pressing upon Yorktown on their way up the peninsula toward Richmond, the elections were held there and then, on the lines, in the trenches, in actual presence of the enemy. Was there ever before an instance of an army changing, by election, the whole body of its regimental officers on the very eve of battle? Yet here it was done, quietly, regularly, without a moment's excitement or confusion. This, as well as several other examples I could mention, has brought me to the conclusion that of all races of men of the word, these southerners have the largest amount of sang froid-of genuine impassive coolness and steadiness. Yet the very contrary is the current and received idea of their character. Southern impulsiveness, southern passion, and wild, blind fury—this is the cant—the direct opposite is the fact."

SINGULAR CASE OF DEPRAVITY .-Greenville, (Tenn.) Letter to Knoxville Press and Herald. |- The cholera at Greenville has developed a few cases of monstrous depravity, one of which I will relate without mentioning names. An old gentleman, probably nearly seventy years of age, who lived a mile or two in the country, and noted for his recklessness and utter defiance of the laws of God, came into town one day, and passing down the street cried out that he intended to spread the cholera over the town. He then went to an undertaker and wanted to know if he could make him a coffin and what he would charge. The reply was that if he wanted it be fore his death he would charge him twenty-five dollars, but if after, he would charge only fourteen dollars. He told him to proceed with the matter, but to be sure to make it out of two-inch plank and leave it open at both ends, so that if the devil comes in at one end he could escape at the other. That night he was stricken down with the cholera, and by morning was a corpse.

The custom of transferring shares to escape personal liability has received a judicial blow in England, Walter Williams, shareholder in "the European Society' (whatever that may be) gave notice to the directors of his desire to transfer 1,000 shares in the Society to George Gilbert, gentleman, in consider-ation of £5. The transfer was executed. The Society went to insolvency, when it turned out that Mr. George Gilbert was s blind man, and at the date of the transaction had not £5 in the world. The official liquidator applied to have Mr. Williams' name placed in the list or contributories, and Lord Westbury. without the least hesitation, and with some severe remarks upon the dishonesty of the transaction granted the appli cation.

I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regula-tor in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it as an invaluable remedy in these attacks. It has not failed to give relief in any instance. REV. W. F. EASTERLING, Florida Conference.

A GREAT STATESMAN GOES FOR A Dog and His Master .- The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, under date of July 15, makes the foling statement :

Hon. Caleb Cushing brought to-day, in the Supreme Court of this District, a novel suit. He sues Thomas Kelley, residing at 815 Fifteenth street, in this city, in the courts, claiming $1,000 damages on the first count and $3,000 on the second. He sets forth that Kelley did wrongfully keep a dog which was used and accustomed to bark continually by day and night, and that on Saturday, the 12th instant, the defendant did then and there allow the said dog to bark incessantly from early in the day through the whole day and night following, and did thereby hinder and prevent the plaintiff from studying and transacting his lawful business by day and deprive him of his sleep during the night so as injuriously to affect his health and the peaceful use of his property." The second count alleges the keeping of the same dog, and that said dog was a dangerous one. We livel

The Pious General Howard.

On Tuesday last the saintly Howard, feeling some qualms of fear, betook bimself to the office of the Inspector General of the Army at the War Department at Washington, and meekly requested of an officer attached to that branch of the service information as to what charges he could be tried upon should the Department see fit to order a court martial. He was informed that he could be tried for neglect of duty in al lowing his subordinates to misapply money belonging to the Freedman's Bureau or under the 39th article of war for embezzlement. In the conversation conversation which insued with the officer upon his troubles, it was suggested to him that he had the privilege of demanding a court of inquiry, or, inasmuch as the charges had become a matter of public notoriety, it might be to his advantage to request an investigation by a military court. Howard replied that with the feeling entertained towards him by many officers of the army, he did not think he could get justice, and hence thus far had declined to ask for a trial by such a tribunal.

Crop Prospects in Europe -The crop reports from all parts of Europe are more satisfactory, and it is now confidently anticipated that the deficiency in England and other countries will be less than was regarded as probable a month or six weeks ago. In England, at the very best, however, the wheat harvest, notwithstanding the improved weather, must fall considerably below the reduced average of last year, with the result of rendering England still Rockingham county is anything but more dependent on foreign countries for food supplies. Yet it is a remarkable fact, and one which illustrates the beneficial operations of the natural laws of trade when not interfered with by legislation, that the arrivals of foreign grain are so regular and large that the price of wheat is now somewhat lower in England than it was a year ago.

By the Governor:

J. B. Nrathery, Private Secretary. june 14-Wtd WILLIAMSON, UPCROCH & THOMAS:

My 12-tf Williamson,

MENTS. In order that the people may vote understandingly on the amendments to the Constitution, at the ensuing election, we deem it necessary to give in full the eight clauses in that instrument scientific instruments or any other perproposed to be altered, together with the alterations themselves.

FIRST: IN RELATION TO THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The present Constitution in Article I, Declaration of Rights, provides as fol-

"Sec. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untarnished, the public debt, regularly contracted before and since the rebellion, shall be regarded as inviolable and never be questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection, or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

This section is amended by striking out the first clause down to and including the word "but," so that the amended clause in Article I will then

"Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of, any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

Another alteration in regard to the public debt is provided for in the same amendment, by striking out section 4, Article V of the present Constitution, which is as follows:

" Sec. 4. The General Assembly shall, by appropriate legislation and by adequate taxation, provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880, it shall lay a specific annual tax upon the real and personal property of the State, and the sum thus realized shall be set apart as a sinking fund, to be devoted to the payment of the pub lic debt." So that the above section will be entirely stricken out and the amended Constitution will not make it compulsory on the Legislature, by express language, to provide for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt.

SECOND: IN RELATION TO THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS. Article III, section 1, of the present Constitution names among the other officers of which the Executive Departelected for a term of four years by the qualified voters of the State, at the same time and places, and in the same manner as members of the General Assembly.

The amendment proposes to strike out the words "Superintendent of Public Works" wherever they occur in the Constitution, thus abolishing that office.

THIRD: IN RELATION TO THE STATE CRNSUS.

In the present Constitution, Article II, the following provision is made for Commissioners: taking a State Census:

"Sec. 5. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight bundred and seventy-five, and at the end of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, after the first session after the return of every enumeration taken as aforesaid, or by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the the Code Commission. formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The amendment proposed to this Article is to strike out all that precedes the words, "the said Senate Districts," in section 5, and to strike out the phrase "as aforesaid, or," the parts so stricken out relating to the census, so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly at the first session after the return of every enumeration taken by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The object of this amendment is to do away with the unnecessary expense of taking a State census under the direction of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the same work is done by the national Government.

FOURTE: IN RELATION TO EXEMP-TIONS FROM TAXATION.

The present Constitution, Article V' Revenue and Taxation, provides as follows :

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations, shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural imple ments for mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

The amendment proposes to change this section by inserting after the word "instruments," the words "or any other personal property," so that the section s amended will read :

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State, or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for musiter, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and sonal property, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

FIFTH: IN RELATION TO THE UNI-VERSITY.

The present Constitution, Article IX, has the following on the subject of the University at Chapel Hill: "Sec. 5. The University of North Carolina, with its lands, emoluments and franchises, is under the control of the State, and shall be held to an inseparable connection with the free public school system of the State." The amendment proposes to strike out this section entirely, thus severing the University from the common school system, and insert the following in lieu thereof, so that the amended Constitution shall read:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom when chosen shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchi-ses and endowments heretofore in anywise granted to or conferred upon the trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws and regulations, from time to time as may be necessary and expedi ent for the maintenance and manage ment of said University."

The following sections of Article IX, relating to the University, are also stricken out:

Sections 13, 14 and 15, relating to the appointment of trustees by the Board of Education, and the officers powers and rights of the trustees. These matters will hereafter devolve on the Legislature, if the amendment relating to the University is ratified.

SIXTH: IN RELATION TO THE SESSIONS

OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. The present Constitution, Article II Legislative Department, provides as fol

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet annually on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This section is to be amended by striking out the word "annually," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "biennially," so that the section amend ed shall read :

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on ment shall be composed, a Superinten the third Monday in November, and dent of Public Works, who shall be when assembled shall be denominated

> This amendment also strikes out the word "annually" in section 6, Article III. and inserts the word "biennially," in reference to the requirement of the Governor to communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon.

SEVENTH: IN RELATION TO THE CODE COMMISSION. The present Constitution, Article IV

Judicial Department, makes the following provisions concerning the Code "Sec. 2. Three Commissioners shall be appointed by this Convention to report to the General Assembly at its first session after this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the Convention shall provide for the Commissioners a reasonable compensa-

Sec. 3. The same Commissioners shall also report to the General Assembly as soon as practicable, a code of law of North Carolina. The Governor shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring in this commission."

The amendment proposes to strike out both these sections, thus abolishing EIGHTH: IN RELATION TO FEDERAL AND

OTHER OFFICE-HOLDERS. The present Constitution, Article

XIV, provides as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one lucrative office under the State at the same time : Provided, That officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace. Commissioners of Public Charities and Commissioners appointed for special purposes, shall not be considered officers within the meaning of this section."

The amendment proposes that this section shall read as follows: "Sec. 7. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under this State or any other State or Government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit, under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities or Commissioners for special purposes." There were eighteen amendments originally proposed, but the eight above specified were all that passed the General Assembly by the requisite twothirds majority.

These eight amendments are to be submitted separately for ratification or rejection, at the election to be held on Thursday, the seventh day of August. Any person qualified to vote may vote for or against each amendment, with a written or printed ticket with the words "For Amendment," or "Against Amendment." The amendments that receive a majority of the popular vote will be duly ratified. A part or all of them may be either ratified or rejected.
